

NewstrAid

The helping hand of the Newstrade

OLD ▲ BEN
NewstrAid Benevolent Fund

Our work goes on, even when yours ends.

None of us like to think of our own mortality but when we finally go, perhaps we should think of those of our colleagues in the news trade who may not have been as fortunate as ourselves.

Have you considered leaving a bequest in your will to NewstrAid to help us help those who have fallen on hard times or are in trouble? Normally, your solicitor can help you make any changes to your will but, if you wish, you can put this form with your copy of your will.

Thank you for your kindness.
